

COMP4431 Artificial Intelligence (2026/27)

GenAI Tool Individual Sharing & Peer Voting

(4% in Overall Marks)

(+ Up to 3% Peer Choice Bonus)

Submission Deadline: 9 Nov 2026 23:59 (Upload to YT and Padlet)

Voting Window: 10 Nov 2026 – 24 Nov 2026

Overview

Generative AI tools and features are evolving rapidly. The purpose of this task is to encourage peer-to-peer learning by exploring and sharing practical applications of GenAI tools. You will record a short screen demonstration of one specific feature of a GenAI tool that you find valuable, share it with the class, and participate in peer voting to recognize the best contributions.

Part 1: Video Submission (4% Base Marks)

Requirements

Create a short screen-recording video in English introducing your favorite GenAI tools and demonstrating one single, high-value feature of a Generative AI tool.

Your video must answer the following 3 questions:

1. Tool & Feature Introduction: What is the tool, and what specific feature are you showcasing?
2. Live/Recorded Demonstration: Show the feature in action using a real prompt, dataset, or use-case.
3. Value / Utility: Why is this feature useful? What specific problem does it solve?

Note: All content in your video must be entirely your own; do not use third-party resources or materials created by others.

Submission Requirements & Guidelines

- Duration: 2 minutes maximum. (Videos exceeding 2 minutes will incur a mark deduction).
- Format: Screen recording with voiceover. Professional editing, intro animations, or face-cams are NOT required.
- Upload Video: Post your video to YouTube, when publishing select “Unlisted”, and copy the your video’s link.

- Create Post on Padlet:

Put the YouTube link on the official class Padlet Board.

[Your Student ID] - [Tool Name]: [Feature Name]

and follow by a brief introduction about the tool.

(Example: 24000001D - NotebookLM: Audio Overview Generation: this video introduces NotebookLM, which is an amazing audio overview generation tool that....)

[Please follow the above title format strictly!]

Part 2: Peer Voting & Bonus Marks (Up to +3% Bonus)

After the submission deadline, the Padlet wall will become a learning gallery. You are invited to review your classmates' posts and vote for the most impressive or practical demonstrations.

Voting Mechanics

- Voting Platform: A Microsoft Form link will be released after the video deadline.
- Rules: You will be allowed to select UP TO 5 of your favorite video demonstrations.
 - You must sign in with your University email to vote.
 - Self-voting or duplicate-voting is strictly prohibited and will disqualify you from the bonus scheme.

Bonus Distribution

The bonus marks will be added directly to your total score (Note: The total overall score for the course is capped at 100%):

- Top 5 Most-Voted Videos: +3% Bonus
- 6th to 10th Most-Voted Videos: +2% Bonus
- Voting Incentive: +1% Bonus (for students who cast a vote for any of the Top 5 videos)

Grading Criteria:

The base 4 marks will be awarded based on the following simple criteria:

Criteria	Full Marks (4/4)	Partial Marks (2/4)	Zero Marks (0/4)
Content & Feature Focus	Clear explanation and working demonstration of a specific feature.	Generic overview of a tool without focusing on a specific feature/use-case.	Missing, non-functional, or unrelated content.
Adherence to Rules	Submitted on time; strictly 2 minutes or less; uploaded correctly to YT & Padlet with correct title format.	Exceeds time limit significantly or fails to follow naming conventions.	Not submitted on time.
